Apartment E2

🛏 1 🪑 1 👤 2

Ideal for couples who want to be in the heart of the action, Apartment E2 was designed for relaxed, easy urban living. Part of the Colony Club complex in Gustavia, the residential-feeling apartment is just a short walk from the city's restaurants, clubs, and boutiques, as well as Shell Beach - no car needed. The view encapsulates much of what there is to love about St. Barth: its verdant trees, distinctive red roofs, spectacular sunsets, and harbor full of luxurious sailboats and motor yachts.

The split-level apartment has terracotta tile floors, a good-size kitchen with all the basics, a canopied king bed in the bedroom, and furnishings that are classic in look and feel. Lounge chairs on the terrace are perfect for sunbathing, and the apartment comes with access to the Colony Club's shared pool for when you want to cool off.
