Location

Angthong National Marine Park

Embark on boat tours from nearby piers to visit this stunning national park, known for its limestone cliffs, hidden lagoons, and clear waters. It's a great spot for snorkeling, kayaking, and hiking.

Wat Khunaram

Not too far from Bang Por, this temple is famous for housing the mummified body of Luang Pho Daeng. It's a unique cultural attraction.

Mae Nam Beach

To the east of Bang Por, Mae Nam Beach offers a more lively atmosphere, with various restaurants, bars, and water sports activities.

Secret Buddha Garden

Located in the central part of Koh Samui, this hidden garden features statues and sculptures in a lush, tropical setting.

Hin Ta and Hin Yai Rocks

These intriguing rock formations, also known as the Grandfather and Grandmother rocks, can be visited at Lamai Beach on the eastern side of the island.

Namuang Waterfall

Located in the southern part of the island, this waterfall offers a refreshing natural experience and the chance for a cool dip.
