This luxury villa is nestled in the cliffs of Los Angeles. Offering all of the exclusive amenities you would expect from a Southern California vacation. Surrounded by a gorgeous view of Los Angeles, you will be in the secluded hills where you can enjoy privacy and relaxation.

Providing a magnificent space for relaxation or fun, with an outdoor kitchen, delightful swimming pool and meditation areas. Outside you will find a terrace with more than enough sun chairs for leisure, a BBQ and a fantastic outdoor dining setup. In addition, the home includes a top of the line sound system, and fountains that add to the serene ambiance. There is also a wet bar which may become your go-to spot for entertaining.

Giant glass doors along this entire one story home roll open for easy access to indoor and outdoor living. Inside, earth tones are a constant theme as they permeate along the grand open floor plan. The indoor space includes a chic living room with soaring fifteen foot ceilings, wet bar, and a kitchen with sweeping views and top of the line appliances. As you walk into the master bedroom you will be immersed by the accompanying tranquility. Sliding glass doors provide access to the pool on your left and a meditation area on your right. A king size bed that is adjustable to your preference, a three-sided fireplace, and a floating tub complete this stunning bedroom.

When you stay here you will be minutes from Rodeo Drive, the Sunset Strip, Santa Monica and Universal Studios.
