On the main level, an open floor plan creates seamless flow between the kitchen and dining area, and a sunny great room. Pour a cup of coffee from the Keurig machine in the chef's kitchen to sip at the breakfast bar, or curl up on the comfy loveseat in the great room by the gas-burning stone fireplace. You will also have two leather armchairs with ottomans. After a day on the slopes, gather around the six-seat dining table for a home-cooked meal, with two additional seats at the breakfast bar.

The sprawling main level features a separate family room with two recliners and a large-screen Satellite TV, a spacious laundry room, and mud room leading to the garage. The master bedroom is also on the main level, offering privacy as the only suite on this floor. Across all four suites, you can comfortably sleep up to 11 guests:
