The layout

Indoor living

- The Century-old teakwood bedroom pavilion raised on stilts above the lily pond includes a sitting and TV area, filled with whimsical furnishings from a bygone era
- Adjoining kitchenette.
- A second building across the lotus pond - a gladak (traditional teakwood building) - provides a dining area with small table for two or three.

Outdoor living

- Enchanting jungle garden with stepping stones across cascading lotus ponds leading to a free-form swimming pool hidden at the end of the garden, with two loungers on a sun-deck and large cushion-covered bale providing relaxation in the shade.
- Large verandah running the width of the bedroom pavilion raised above the lotus pond, furnished with planters chairs and table for breeze-cooled relaxation.
- A second small pond-edge verandah fronts the gladak.
- In a quiet corner of the garden, a double hammock is perfect for siestas.

The rooms

Bedroom suite

- Large air-conditioned bedroom with king-size bed.
- An upholstered daybed and antique chairs.
- 47-inch TV with cable channels and DVD player, and an iPod dock.
- Adjoining dressing area.
- Garden bathroom with twin basins, walk-in rainshower and a huge couples bathtub carved out of a single river-rock boulder.

Location

Dea Villas is located in a quiet street in the rural district of Berawa, near Canggu. There's not much in the immediate area apart from a number of luxury villas, acres of rice fields and the rugged surf beach of Berawa (2km). Within a two-kilometre radius of Dea Villas are a number of cafe-style restaurants, a delicatessen, some simple spas, and a yoga venue.
