Canggu 3686 - Villa Kedidi

🛏 3 🍽 3 👥 6

Villa Kedidi is a traditional Balinese home offering a blissful retreat away from the maddening crowds, just metres from Canggu Beach on Bali's south-west coast. Hidden behind private walls in lush tropical gardens, this three-bedroom villa neighbours Villa Kakatua (four bedrooms), to provide an individual or combined option for families and groups.

Child friendly with warm and attentive staff, guests can easily relax and unwind in the beautiful Balinese home away from home. It is the perfect place to laze by the pool, take a stroll through the rice fields or catch a wave at one of Canggu's popular surf breaks.

Villa Kedidi and its sister, Villa Kakatua (a four-bedroom property situated next door), have only one other nearby neighbour: the Tugu Hotel, a stunning boutique hotel-museum stacked with antiques and a must visit during your stay. To the north and east of the villa views are of empty fields with the occasional cow wandering past. Its very peaceful - a little slice of Balinese suburbia. The quiet Batu Bolong Beach is 200m from the villa and is a great spot for surfing and sunset walks. Swimming is not advised as there are strong under-currents and no lifeguards in this area. An ancient temple built from coral looks out to the ocean 200m from the villa where there are often ceremonies that spill out onto the beach.

Location

Villa Kedidi lies at the beach end of Canggu's thriving Jalan Pantai Batu Bolong, a country lane that has experienced an amazing transformation over the last few years and is now home to some of Bali's hippest haunts. You'll find a number of excellent cafes, bars and restaurants within a few minutes' walk of Villa Kakatua. Among them are the chill-out beach bars, Old Mans and The Lawn, popular vegetarian venues Betelnut Cafe, Milk & Madu and Crate, and the ever-elegant Hotel Tugu. Batu Bolong Beach, just 100 metres from the villa, is renowned for its world-class surf breaks and rugged beauty; it's the ideal location to catch a wave, take a stroll along the sands to nearby Echo Beach or capture the sun setting over an ornately carved sea temple.
