Arnalaya Beach House is a divine residence of contemporary design and fabulous living set in a tropical utopia. Recline in the architectural beauty and balance of this beachfront retreat on Balis chic sunset coast in chic Canggu. Let the large team of caring staff indulge your every whim; play on the private tennis court; exert at the gym; lounge by the pool, and be polished and pampered in the villas exclusive spa. This outstanding five-bedroom villa with space for up to 18 guests leaves nothing to chance with a private chef to prepare feasts in the show-stopping bale that overlooks the ocean and terraces of immaculate lawn.

Arnalaya Beach House sits right on the beach in a local village neighbourhood that contains several other luxury private villas. A couple of hundred metres in either direction along the beach will bring you to some beach bars and small restaurants, especially popular around sunset time. Check out Old Mans restaurant, bar and live music venue a short walk up the beach to the north, as well as the well-known Echo Beach for daily barbecues and Sunday-night live music. If you are interested in learning to surf, High Tide Surf School (for kids and adults) is just a five-minute walk up the beach at Batu Bolong. Nelayan Beach, immediately in front of the villa, is also popular with surfers; watching them ride the waves is compelling viewing.

Location

Arnalaya Beach House looks down over beautiful, unspoiled Nelayan Beach, a strip of fisherman's huts, colourful fishing boats and a sacred temple, at the end of one of Canggu's most exclusive roads. Beach bums will adore the location, which offers everything from beers on the sands served from a coolbox, to groovy sunset sessions at the uber chilled Old's Mans beach bar. The famous Echo Beach - less than a ten-minute walk along the ocean's edge - has a great seafood barbecue and sunset surfing. Seminyak with its fine dining, funky clubs and chic shopping is 20 minutes south. Head north and you will soon reach and the Greg Norman designed Nirwana Golf Club that over looks the important sea temple of Tanah Lot.
