🛏 5 🍽 5 👥 10

Lush and peaceful Villa Zelig in Canggu, Bali, stands out from other luxury villas for its close-to-the-beach location and chic heritage style. Open-air living pavilions and five splendid ensuite bedrooms are nestled throughout vast terraced gardens around a 20-metre swimming pool. Its a great place to teach kids the meaning of 'utopia' - Villa Zelig also boasts a comfortable, shady pool pavilion, shallow childrens pool, two-storey massage bale and entertainment pavilion with movie projector. Every guest is pampered by accommodating staff that includes a private chef. The shops and restaurants of Canggu and Seminyak are within easy reach.

Villa Zelig is situated on a quiet, leafy lane in an area typified by private villas and traditional rice fields. A bamboo hanging bridge 100m from the villa crosses a lagoon and leads onto Kayuh Putih beach. As currents can be strong on this section of the coast, its best to walk south towards Batubelig beach (500m) and swim between the yellow flags. The chill-out La Laguna beach bar and restaurant is a two-minute walk from the villa and further down the beach are Potato Head Beach Club, and the W Resort and Spa - two of the most happening spots in Bali. Along the beach to the north is Finns Beach Club, and the many shops, restaurants and bars of Canggu and Seminyak are within a short drive of the villa.

Location

Staying at Villa Zelig in Canggu puts guests at the centre of Bali's happening beach scene. There is good food and fun in all directions, and ocean waves are just a two-minute walk away.

The quiet residential street where Villa Zelig is located dead-ends onto a pedestrian-only path to Kayu Putih beach, better known as the site of La Laguna - a beachfront restaurant and bar with gypsy-fairytale character. Also on this stretch of golden sand are Finn's Beach Club, Rip Curl School of Surf and casual beach shacks selling cold drinks and snacks.

Canggu, a couple of kilometres north-west of the villa, has the newest crop of hipster cafes, yoga studios, boutique stores and ritzy restaurants on the island. And everything here is woven into a beautiful patchwork of rice paddy terraces and private homes. To the south-east of Villa Zelig is Seminyak, with its own established offering of beachfront pool haunts, high-end shopping and much of Bali's best fine dining and swankiest nightclubs.
