

Region: Canggu Bedrooms: 6 Sleeps: 12 Bathrooms: 6

Situated down a quiet Canggu street, a stones throw from the sea, the tropical oasis of Villa LuWih awaits you. With its modern simplicity, two infinity pools and dramatic waterfall feature, Villa LuWih stands out from the crowd. Facing west, LuWih affords tremendous views of the Indian Ocean and Bali's famous sunsets. This vast six-bedroom villa boasts plenty of indoor and outdoor living spaces, lush tropical gardens, an outdoor bar, and unobstructed ocean views from all angles. Staffed with a friendly, professional team, including a skilled chef, this luxurious villa is perfect for large families or friends traveling in a group.

With only a rice field separating it from the sea, Villa LuWih is close to the fabulous surfing waves of Pererenan Beach in Canggu. This peaceful villa offers a great vantage point for not only watching the surfing action, but also the daily life of Balis rice-farmers, toiling below a rainbow of birds flitting through the sky. For dining, shopping and exploring the villas reasonably priced car and driver can take you to the likes of Echo Beach, the beach clubs of Seminyak or Tanah Lot temple, all within 5-15 kilometres of Villa LuWih.

Location

Tucked away at the end of a quiet rural lane in the district of Canggu, Villa Lu Wih is located just a stone's throw from the dramatic black sands and rolling waves of Pererenan Beach - one of Bali's most popular surfing spots. The villa is also just a short drive from trendy Echo Beach (7km) with its beachfront bars, restaurants and surf shops. Heading slightly further south down the coast is the fascinating museum-hotel Tugu, which is well worth dropping into for drinks or dinner. Villa Lu Wih is approximately mid-way between the top-rated Nirwana Bali Golf course and neighbouring Tanah Lot beach temple (both 10km), and the sophisticated shopping and dining centre of Seminyak (13km).
