Cape Coral

Located in Florida, on the gulf of Mexico, Cape Coral is known as a Waterfront Wonderland and has more canals than any other city in the world. This coastal town offers a variety of Gulf beaches within 15 miles, including the beautiful Sanibel Island and Fort Myers Beach. The area is known for a wide variety of wildlife, including burrowing owls, waterfowl, gopher tortoises, dolphins, reptiles and manatees. With plenty of parks, ecological preserves and walking trails it is the ideal location for any nature enthusiast. Visitors to the area can enjoy an array of activities including golf, cycling, fishing and sailing. Cape Harbour is a newly trending area of the city and offers plenty of different events throughout the year, as well as waterfront restaurants, local shops and a popular farmer's market every Saturday.
