Location

The villa is part of the Cape Yamu estate, an exclusive enclave developed by world-renowned architectural design team, Philippe Starck and Jean-Michel Gathy. It rests in the north-east corner of Phuket in a naturally preserved region marked by rolling hills, tall coconut groves and lush tropical surrounds. With three marinas and two piers nearby, it enjoys easy access to the spectacular islands of Phang Nga Bay, including Koh Naka Yai and Rang Rai, both with pristine white sand beaches. For nature lovers, the Khao Phra Thaeo National Park with Gibbon Rehabilitation Centre and eye-catching Bang Pae waterfall are within close reach, while the bustling streets of Phuket Town are a mere 30 minute drive away.
