Location

This cabins location is just a short walk to the lakes edge and the 4-mile walk path that circles the lake. From the windows of the cabin looking south takes in dramatic views of Longs peak, Mount Olympus and the Rocky Mountain National Park. Don't be surprised to spot Elk grazing in the large open space beyond your patio. We are confident that you will love the location of this cabin, if you are in Estes Park for hiking, horseback riding, golfing, wildlife viewing or just plain relaxation it is sure to meet all those needs. If you are the type that would like to cook a meal inside or BBQ on the patio, this cabin has it all.

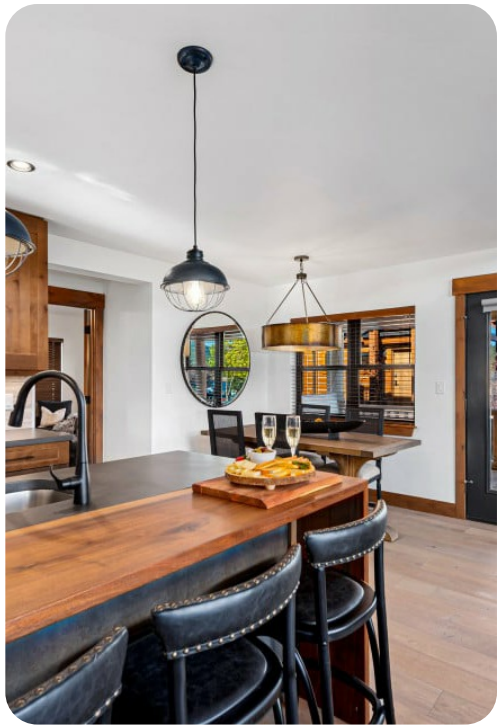

Please note: Our community is growing, and nearby construction may be seen or heard during your stay from this beautiful cabin.
