Guests will relish in stunning views of the valley - as well as downtown Hot Springs - from the vantage point of the oversized deck, which can be accessed off the kitchen. The deck comes replete with two outdoor sofas, a large dining table that seats 8, a gas grill, and an outdoor Roku equipped flatscreen TV. There is a firepit located toward the front of the home, as well as a charming covered front porch.

At the end of a busy day in the great outdoors, guests can get some much-needed rest in one of three nicely appointed bedrooms on the second floor.
