A modern cabin nestled on forested grounds near the heart of Truckee, This home offers a feeling of total escape less than 15 minutes from ski resorts, hiking trails, golf courses and lake adventures. Between soaring trees on the sprawling wooded lot, the home offers views of Grays Crossing Golf Course.

A two-story entry welcomes guests to an open-concept living area with hardwood floors, wood beams and an impressive floor-to-ceiling stone fireplace. Styled in a mountain-modern take on the Old West with stylish furniture and themed artwork, the home evokes the feeling of an alpine lodge. A comfy sectional, two mid-century inspired club chairs and ottoman seating offer plenty of room for conversation, board games, or a movie on the large-screen TV.

A gourmet kitchen features new appliances and ample counter space for home-cooked meals, while an eight-seat dining table offers room to entertain. With high-top four seats at the breakfast bar, you can seat up to twelve.

The living area opens onto a rustic yard through tall glass doors, where a picnic-style dining table offers an alfresco option seating eight. The yard also features a BBQ grill, fire pit, chaise lounge chairs and a private hot tub overlooking the forest.

Between a spacious master suite and two guest bedrooms, this home comfortably sleeps up to six guests:

- Master Bedroom - Main Level King Bed This sprawling room has a sitting area, large picture windows and private entrance to the yard. The en-suite bath features dual sinks, a stand-alone steam shower and a rain shower with two shower heads.
- Bedroom 2 - Upper Level Queen Bed This charming room has a big picture window with forest views, rustic nightstands and a writing desk.
- Bedroom 3 - Upper Level Queen Bed This massive room has two big windows with views, twin nightstands and an office area with desk overlooking the forest.

Guests of the main-level bedrooms share a full bathroom with a tub shower. A separate powder room and laundry room offer convenience for groups.

Above the living area, a loft with a leather sofa, foosball table, dart board, TV and wet bar provides additional entertainment space, ideal for teens or older kids. As a guest of this home also has access to the community pool and fitness center.

From your convenient location just outside Truckees town center, you will have easy access to the year-round recreation of Northern California. In the winter, drive just 15 minutes to Northstar or 30 minutes to Sugar Bowl Resort. Summer brings days on the golf course, hiking and biking trails, or out on the lake. The northern edge of Lake Tahoe lies 30 minutes away, or explore Donner Lake just 20 minutes away.

With four driveway spaces, you can easily satisfy different tastes for adventure within your group. At the end of each day, you will have a tranquil homebase to return to.
