Little Citron Vert

🛏 1 🛋 1 👥 2

Set amid the peacefulness of Toiny's cote sauvage, Little Citron Vert is a charming, romantic, and cozy hideaway for a couple. The private bungalow has a direct entrance from the terrace, on which you can find comfortable sitting areas, a dining area, and a sunny expanse with lounge chairs. The white cladding on the walls and ceiling create the feeling of being in a classic St. Barth beach house, one where the island living is easy.

Little Citron Vert's location is also an advantage because of its views over the Caribbean and because of its proximity to the services and restaurant of Le Toiny. It is also walking distance from Toiny beach.

The layout and decoration of Little Citron Vert are simple and pleasant. Along with the living areas on the terrace, there is a cozy bedroom with HDTV, Dish Network, and Apple TV, as well as a compact but functional kitchen. The space has air-conditioning, ceiling fans, a king-size bed and ensuite bathroom.
