The beautifully-constructed home is an elegant vacation rental. This modern luxury home in Hollywood Hills has state of the art amenities and sits high in the canyon that looks out over Los Angeles. Only five minutes from the Sunset Strip, this magnificent mansion can entertain eight family members and friends.

When guests enter, many are greatly taken in by the immense glass door which opens itself to the hallways exquisite Venini chandelier and cascading glass staircase. The flawless living space draws guests eyes where the floors are adorned with custom gleaming Porcelanosa tile and French white oak. In the living room a Sputnik light fixture and zebra rug adds to the decor. The fully equipped kitchen boasts Miele appliances which add to the refined ambience.

All of the four bedrooms have their own bathrooms. Three bedrooms have queen beds, one with its own balcony. The honeymoon-esque master bedroom contains a king bed, spa-style steam shower, walk-in closet, and terrace access.

The elevation of the Hollywood Hills notwithstanding, this property is in close proximity to Hollywoods greatest draws, from Universal Studios Hollywood to the Hollywood sign and Walk of Fame. A short drive will find you on the Sunset Strip of West Hollywood, perhaps Americas most famous nightlife hotspot. A few minutes beyond, the glitz and glamor of Beverly Hills awaits.
