Los Angeles 7

🏠 4 📄 2 👤 8

This four-bedroom house in West Hollywood's affluent Crescent Heights corridor offers sleeping room for 8, with a splendid master suite featuring a private patio and en-suite bathroom. The open floor plan of the home provides an excellent indoor-outdoor flow for the ideal SoCal alfresco lifestyle. Of course, with so many top restaurant options within walking distance, or three minutes drive away on Los Angeles revitalized Sunset Strip, you may not have the inclination to take advantage of the designer kitchen. The eternal dilemma of the Los Angeles vacation rental: eating out at one of the West Coast's finest establishments, or using the magnificent kitchen?

This property has easy access to popular points of interest in the area. The Hollywood Hills, Venice Beach, Santa Monica, all are around half an hour or less drive away. It is rare that you will find a vacation rental in Los Angeles that is as well-located.
