An upgraded townhouse with vintage ski decor and log accents, this roomy 1-bedroom condo offers all the amenities of a high-end condo with the inviting atmosphere of a cozy ski lodge.

High ceilings and wood-paneled walls welcome you to a spacious living area with hardwood floors, classic ski art and a wood-burning, river rock fireplace. A full-length sofa and twin armchairs frame a log coffee table and large, flat-screen TV, offering a cozy place to gather after a day on the slopes.

In the dining area, a handcrafted sleigh and antique snowshoes hang above a five-seat formal dining table. Sliding glass doors allow light to flood the living and dining areas, with a private furnished deck just outside. A fully-equipped kitchen invites home-cooked meals with high-end appliances.

Just down the hall is a full bedroom, styled in classic mountain decor with a king-sized bed and twin nightstands. From the living area , access a cozy, carpeted loft with a flat-screen TV and en-suite bath features two additional queen beds, allowing the home to comfortably accommodate up to 4 guests. A second full bathroom downstairs with a private washer and dryer provides added convenience.

As guests of Bigwood, you will enjoy access to the community hot tub, summer-use pool and BBQ grill, as well as a private, one-car garage. This home is also conveniently located near Eagle Lodge on the yellow shuttle route for easy access to the slopes and entire town. Whether you choose to visit Mammoth for the skiing, hiking, biking or simply the lively town events, this condo is an ideal home for year-round adventures.
