It couldnt be much easier: less than half an hour after emerging from Phuket airport, youre at your luxurious private pool villa, taking in awe-inspiring sea views while being served a refreshing welcome drink by a member of the villas full-time staff.

Stress falls away dramatically. The most urgent decisions you now face are which Thai delicacies to request from your private chef, and whether to opt for a massage treatment in the lavish spa room, a lazy sea-view swim in the huge villa pool or a snooze on a sunbed under a big parasol.

Welcome to Malaiwana Villa M, an exquisite five-bedroom holiday home in the ultra-exclusive Malaiwana estate. Its prime location on the hillside overlooks Nai Thon Beach, an idyllic one-kilometre stretch of sand on the Thai islands peaceful northwest coast.

Families and groups will find ample comforts here, with the 25-metre pool on the expansive terrace, stylish outdoor and indoor living areas and a Western guest kitchen, plus an entertainment room, a superbly well-equipped gym and a spa room.

Thai-style peaked roofs and extensive use of fine timber add a touch of grandeur and drama to the villas classic aesthetic.

With its top-notch facilities, its purpose-built party area and those soaring views from the pool terrace, Villa M also makes a memorable venue for a wedding or other special event.

Though a handful of excellent restaurants are found nearby, dining in is a delight at Villa M, not only because of its sea-view indoor and outdoor dining areas but also thanks the villas skilled chef, who prepares every meal, either from a suggestion menu or from guest requests. Provisions are charged at cost plus 20%.

For holiday delights beyond simply relaxing in the villa, the beach below with its soft sand, casual sea-view bars and surf/stand-up paddling is just a short walk away. Or the villa manager will help arrange in-house spa treatments, yacht charters, scuba diving daytrips, golf bookings, shopping excursions, tours and more.

Malaiwana estate is set on the hillside at the south end of Nai Thon Beach. A one-kilometre stretch of golden sand, water activities including standup paddle and snorkelling and low-key dining choices all lie within a few hundred metres of the estate. Situated just nine kilometres from Phuket airport, Nai Thon retains a sleepy village atmosphere. Though the beach could no longer be considered a hidden gem, it retains its lustre as a lesser-visited, picturesque spot along Phukets peaceful north-west coast.

Location

The crystal-clear waters of the Andaman Sea and the powder-soft sands of Nai Thon Beach are in full view from every villa and residence at Malaiwana. Just a short walk or downhill drive away from the estate, this pristine one-kilometre-long beach on Phuket's peaceful northwest coast is perfect for sunning, swimming, snorkelling, stand-up paddling and sandcastle building.

A tranquil village atmosphere prevails in this unspoiled corner of the island and the beach road is lined with low-key shops and cafes. Along the coast, numerous hidden coves and beaches are waiting to be discovered.

Just up the road, the Trisara Resort offers fabulous dining, and other chic nearby venues include Dream Beach Club at Layan Beach and the beachfront restaurants at Bang Tao, eight kilometres to the south.

Malaiwana Villa M is an easy 20-minute drive from Phuket International Airport.
