You will always enjoy first tracks from this mid-mountain Deer Valley townhouse, located next to Northside Express chairlift in the popular Empire Pass area. Ideally situated for every skier ability, this home sits just below the beginner and intermediate terrain of Flagstaff Mountain and a lift away from the expert tree runs and bowls of Daly Chutes. Slope-side access makes it an ideal home base for everyone to warm up in between runs, or shed a layer before afternoon skiing.

After a day on the mountain, escape to a relaxing retreat with a private hot tub and nearly 4,000 square feet of living space, including an inviting great room, a separate theater room and 4 en-suite bedrooms. Ideal for privacy, the layout features a king master suite and queen bedroom on the top floor, a king guest master suite and a fourth bedroom with two full beds on the bottom floor, and primary living areas, including a chefs kitchen, on the main level.

For a day trip to one of Utah’s 10 neighboring ski resorts or for nearby summer adventures, from paddleboarding on Lake Jordanelle to scenic hikes at Sundance Resort, you can take advantage of a 2-car garage with lots of space to store gear rentals.
