Sanur Ketewel 6659 - Bayu Gita Beachfront

🛏 6 🚿 6 👥 12

Rising from the black sands of Pabean Beach on Balis south-east coast lies this magnificent six-bedroom villa. With direct beachfront access and uninterrupted ocean views you will want for absolutely nothing in this temple of luxury. The villa, staffed by a professional and dedicated team, has a fabulous array of indoor and outdoor living areas and boasts a state-of-the-art home cinema, games room and gym as well as an enormous infinity swimming pool and plunge pools adjoining the two master bedrooms. With its wonderful sense of space, stunning views and stylish interior design, this is the ultimate villa to realise every holiday dream.

Villa Bayu Gita is located absolutely beachfront at Pabean Beach, near Ketewel, on Balis south-east coast. Bounded by the River Wos, rice fields, tobacco plantations, papaya, banana and coconut groves, the area is blessed with spectacular views extending across the ocean towards the beaches of Sanur and Nusa Dua, the islands of Lembongan, Ceningan and Penida, and the mountains of East Bali.

Pabean was once a small port used by oriental traders, the neighbouring village of Saba produced Balis finest Legong dancers, and local temple ceremonies are a common sight. The nearby river estuary is full of birdlife, while the glistening black-sand beach offers beautiful walks; it is popular with surfers but swirling currents (and no lifeguards) make it unsafe for swimming.

There are no Western-style restaurants or shops in the immediate vicinity but international restaurants and shops galore can be found just 13km away in Sanur. There is a riding stables at Saba (3km), and Bali Safari and Marine Park offers a great day out for the kids just 8km from the villa. The villages of Mas (13km), Sukawati (7km), Batubulan (13km) and Batuan (10km), famous for their traditional handcrafts are fascinating to visit, while Balis cultural hub of Ubud is a scenic 17km away.

Location

Villa Bayu Gita faces the dramatic black sands of Pabean Beach in the bucolic east-coast village of Ketewel. The area is blessed with spectacular views extending across the ocean towards the beaches of Sanur and Nusa Dua, the islands of Lembongan, Ceningan and Penida, and the mountains of east Bali, and is well known by surfers, who come here to enjoy breaks which are far less crowded than those of Kuta or Uluwatu.

The charming and laid-back seaside town of Sanur is a short drive (10km from the villa. Here you will find cafes, restaurants, beachside bars, calm swimming waters and a boardwalk where you can enjoy a leisurely stroll or a bicycle ride. Also within easy reach of Villa Bayu Gita are several villages renowned for their locally produced arts and crafts, silverware and woodwork as well as the Bali Safari & Marine Park and Bali Bird Park. Bali's cultural hub, Ubud, is a mere thirty-minute drive away.
