This home on Harbor Island is tucked into a friendly neighborhood at the end of a quiet beachfront cul-de-sac. With five bedrooms and eight private balconies, this spacious home allows you to immerse yourself in the gentle offshore breezes, swaying palm trees, and coastal birdsong of the South Carolina shore from any room.

There is space for three cars to park, including a one-car garage. Enter the home up a flight of stairs and onto a quaint front porch. Open the carved wood front door to the main floor kitchen and dining space. The kitchen features cherry wood custom cabinets, stainless steel appliances, and a tiered, granite-topped island with seating for four. There is also an elegant glass dining table with seating for six. A glass-paneled door leads out to the private back deck, with views of the peaceful marsh and the ocean beyond.

Up the staircase is a lofted living space with comfy leather sofas, a flat-screen television with basic cable, and a fireplace. This living space is ideal for curling up with a bowl of popcorn for a family movie night. There is also a large private deck just off this living space. Relax out here in one of the rocking chairs and sit back and enjoy the ocean views and the world-class birdwatching.

Sleeps 10 people across 2 master suites and 3 more spacious bedrooms.

1st Master Suite- Main Floor Queen Bed The main floor master bedroom has gleaming wood floors and direct access to two balconies with ocean views. The private en suite bathroom features a walk-in shower with sea glass inspired tiles.

Second Bedroom- Main Floor Twin Bunk Beds The other bedroom on the main floor has twin bunk beds that are perfect for the kiddos. This bedroom also has a private balcony with neighborhood views.

There is a full bathroom on the main floor with a jetted tub and a stackable washer and dryer. This bathroom is accessed from the hallway.

2nd Master Suite- Third Floor Queen Bed The third-floor master suite is located off the lofted living area. Similar to the main floor master suite, this bedroom also has access to two balconies with ocean views and comfortable seating areas. A spacious, private en suite bathroom has a step-in shower.

Fourth bedroom- Third Floor Queen Bed A cozy fourth bedroom has a private balcony with neighborhood views.

Fifth Bedroom- Third Floor Queen Bed The fifth bedroom also has a private balcony with neighborhood views.

A third-floor full bathroom has a soaking tub with soothing jets. This bathroom is accessed from the hallway.

On the ground floor, there is a convenient outdoor shower for rinsing off sandy toes and salty skin. There is also a full refrigerator on the ground floor - making it easy to stash cold drinks or a few quick snacks for beach days. The backyard has a wood deck with a picnic table, chairs, and two grills - one charcoal, one gas. Gather your group together and grill up some fresh seafood or juicy burgers for dinner.

Please be advised that all guests are required to have a car pass in order to access the island. These passes are not included in the booking and must be obtained at an additional cost. Car passes must be purchased through Natural Retreats in advance of your stay.

When booking this home guests will receive one free adult admission ticket, per night stay, to attractions like the Kazoo Factory, the Escape Room and a free kayak rental.Â Â
