Tabanan 9655 - Villa Kailasha

🛏 9 🚿 9 👥 18

Away from the crowds, Villa Kailasha offers a tranquil respite in Bali's Tabanan regency. This marvellous property sprawls over 11,000 sqm of land, surrounded by coconut groves on three sides and endless ocean in front. You will feel like you are staying in your own private boutique hotel, such is the expanse of the property. Privacy is guaranteed, with bedrooms spread across different pavilions. Yet, each of the nine rooms offers a relaxed and luxurious stay amidst tropical greenery.

With accommodation for up to 18 guests, Villa Kailasha is perfect for large get-togethers, business or yoga retreats, and small personal functions, though there is nothing small about the expanse of its lawns. The grounds are impeccably maintained and dotted with flowering trees and swaying palms. They hold within them a 14-metre swimming pool bordered by sunbeds looking out towards the twinkling blue ocean beyond a glimmering black sand beach.

Location

A three-minute stroll from Villa Kailasha takes you to Kelating Beach featuring sparkling black sand and sweeping coastline views. The immediate neighbourhood is a small Balinese village called Dukuh which is bordered by rice fields as far as the eye can see. Set blissfully away from the busy town, the only restaurant nearby sits in the five-star Alila Villas Soori (300m) which boasts both a fine-dining restaurant as well as an alfresco bar serving beachfront cocktails, best enjoyed at sunset. However, with a professional chef at your service in the villa, you may find no incentive to step out for culinary gratification. The quiet beach and river estuary offer beautiful walks, and local temple ceremonies are a common sight. This stretch of coastline is popular with surfers but there are strong rip currents and no lifeguards so it is deemed unsafe for swimming.
