Constructed with locally sourced materials, including dead-standing timbers, this charming European-style home features hardwood floors and beams, galvanized steel panels and baseboards throughout, and a minimalist style, harkening to the mining history of Kachina Village.

In the living room, a mid-century sectional sofa faces a chic, steel firebox and large-screen TV, accented by an industrial coffee table. Through a grand entryway, the living area flows into an eat-in kitchen, where a family-style dining table seats up to 8 guests. Fully equipped with stainless steel appliances and a wet bar, the kitchen offers plenty of room for crafting hot cocoa and cocktails after a day on the slopes, or baking a batch of cookies on a snowed-in afternoon.

Each bedroom, styled in modern mountain decor, features plush linens with plenty of storage:

Bedroom 1 - Top Level The master suite, located on the top floor for privacy, has a king-sized canopy bed, a chic sitting area, and en-suite bath with dual sinks and a soaker bathtub.

Bedroom 2 - Second Level This airy room has a king bed, a writing desk, and an en-suite bathroom with a walk-in shower.

Bedroom 3 - Second Level

Sleeping up to 4 guests with two sets of twin bunk beds, this room is ideal for families or groups. Guests of this room share a spacious full bathroom.

Designed for maximum comfort and efficiency, the home features a separate powder room, a private washer and dryer, and plenty of gear storage. On blue-bird days, relax on the private deck or fire up the BBQ grill. For a gourmet night out, walk to the nearby Bavarian Restaurant, mentioned in Outside Magazine, for authentic German-Austrian fare.

No matter how deeply you sleep after a day of playing outside, you can still catch first tracks in the morning with a high-speed chairlift a short walk away.

Whether you are seeking a scenic escape with family or an adventure with friends, this is a perfect balance of rustic ambiance with convenience and high-end amenities.
