

Corossol

Villa Bianca

4 4 8

Simple and soothing, with a color palette of creamy white and wide-angle windows wherever possible, Villa Bianca is both very modern and very comfortable and cozy. The newly built luxury rental property benefits from its location in Corossol. The views over Corossol Bay are positively mesmerizing, some of the best that the island of St. Barth has to offer.

The vacation home is made up of two buildings with a covered outdoor area in between them. This alfresco space is meant for breezy Caribbean-style dining, as it has a dining table and sitting area in the shade. On the sunny part of the terrace, there's the heated infinity pool and lounge chairs.

One of the buildings contains a living area with a large sectional sofa and entertainment center, along with one bedroom on the main floor and another bedroom downstairs. The second building has a stylish, high-end kitchen with a long island and breakfast bar, plus two more bedrooms. The villa also has a fitness room.

Each of the bedrooms is equal in size, and all have king beds, ensuite bathrooms with rain head showers, and other luxuries. This makes Villa Bianca a good house to share with a group of friends. And of course, the Concierge can customize activities and meals for any sort of group and any sort of occasion.
