Villa Bibi

4 4 8

Located high in Vitet, with an incredible view over Cul de Sac and Tortue island, Villa Bibi offers peace, privacy, and beauty. Built and furnished using natural materials such as dark Brazilian wood and white cotton canvas, the overall effect gives Villa Bibi a feeling of elegant harmony.

The loft-like main area of this property houses the living room, dining room and kitchen. Open on every side, it is bright and airy. The living room is very large and faces the view and the pool. The gourmet kitchen is fully equipped and practical, and makes it possible to entertain without being separated from the party. The indoor dining table is huge, seating at least twelve people. There are three bedrooms with ensuite bathrooms next to each other, opening to the pool and ocean view. The fourth bedroom is located at the entrance at the back of the villa with garden view and outside shower. The pool has light gray tiles giving the water a pale blue color, a large deck surrounds the pool.
