Villa Boa

🛏 2 🍽 2 👥 4

Surrounded by flowering purple bougainvillea and yellow frangipani, Villa Boa answers this tropical profusion of colors with bursts of blue: turquoise, azure, powder, and sky. With a view over St. Barth's green hillsides and the Atlantic in the distance, this relaxed and comfortable home will put you in a state of vacation bliss.

Located in Marigot, Villa Boa has been totally renovated and is pleasingly decorated with harmonious colors and antique furniture. With extensive gardens and interesting volcanic-rock formations, the property is extremely private with many areas for sitting in the shade or in the sun. The bedrooms are completely independent from each other, making this an ideal place for two couples or a family with teenagers.
