At Villa Cap au Vent, a relaxed, Mediterranean style combines with the most extraordinary of St. Barth locations to create a truly unique atmosphere. This home is at once both impressive and inviting: outside, the expansive view of the blue Atlantic will take your breath away, while the interiors cheerful colors and pleasing decor make you feel immediately at home.

Located at the very tip of Pointe Milou, Villa Cap au Vent offers a sweeping vista all the way from the islands leeward side, to the west, to the bay of Grand Cul de Sac to the east. With whitewashed, Ibiza-style walls and stone tiles from the south of France, the terrace of villa Cap au Vent brings to mind relaxed Mediterranean sophistication. Together with the kitchen and dining area, it naturally become the focal point of this homes lifestyle. During the day, guests can find a cool respite from the heat of sun in the shimmering lap pool overhanging the ocean. At sunset and into the evening, the view is simply sublime, with spotlights illuminating the rocky cliffs and breaking surf below. The fully equipped kitchen opens directly out to the dining area and the view, creating the perfect ambience for casual dinners.

Villa Cap au Vent provides not only spectacular views and a soothing ambience, but also an exceptional level of refinement and attention to detail in amenities. The kitchen is stocked with French glassware and Italian dishware for sixteen or more, as well as top-quality appliances to satisfy the most demanding of chefs. For barbecues, guests can even choose between a traditional Weber charcoal grill and a professional Lynx gas grill. The same standards apply in every room in the house, from top-of-the-line electronics in the living room to the finest linens and towels in the bedrooms and bathrooms. Villa Cap au Vent two master bedrooms provide king beds and ensuite bathrooms with dual vanities, one with a private, ocean-view terrace and the other opening onto the main terrace and pool. The third bedroom offers a queen bed, while the fourth has two twin beds. Both have private ensuite baths.

Villa Cap au Vent household manager brings yet another rare benefit to this special property. Residing on the premises in a nearby but completely separate and independent bungalow, she provides an added measure of peace-of-mind in addition to daily house keeping and nightly turndown service. Guests at Villa Cap au Vent receive complimentary continental breakfast each morning with fresh croissants and baguettes except Sunday and holidays.
