Villa Citron Vert

🛏 3 🍽 3 👥 6

Set amid the peacefulness of Toiny's cote sauvage, Villa Citron Vert is a charming, romantic, and cozy hideaway for a couple. Each room of the luxury rental property occupies its own separate bungalow with a direct entrance from the terrace, on which you can find comfortable sitting areas, a dining area, and a sunny expanse with lounge chairs. The white cladding on the walls and ceiling creates the feeling of being in a classic St. Barth beach house, one where the island living is easy.

Villa Citron Vert's location is also an advantage because of its views over the Caribbean and because of its proximity to the services and restaurant of Le Toiny. Although the villa does not have a swimming pool, it is walking distance from Toiny Beach.

The layout and decoration of Villa Citron Vert are simple and pleasant. Along with the living areas on the terrace, there is a cozy indoor living room with a wide, comfortable couch with HDTV, Dish Network, and Apple TV, as well as a compact but functional kitchen.
