Villa Fun and Sun

🛏 3 🍽 3 👥 6

The owners of Villa Fun and Sun clearly didn't take things too seriously. Rather, they were refreshingly relaxed, and they recognized their best attributes from the very beginning. Their luxury rental property is situated in St. Jean overlooking the pond, the bay, and the green landscape, and soaks up plenty of sun and offers plenty of opportunities for fun.

Villa Fun and Sun is a place for relaxed, easy living, with convenient access, a good location, ample parking, and any other amenity that a guest might need. The villa was designed to help guests forget about logistics and simply enjoy their time on the island of St. Barth.

The vacation home is ideal for sharing with friends, as the three bedrooms are far apart from one another, and as a result, they come with very good privacy. Two of them have euro king beds, and the third has a queen-size bed. They all have ensuite bathrooms.

The common areas include a lovely swimming pool with views over the bay, a shaded outdoor dining table, and a cozy indoor living room with plush couches and chairs lined up to have optimal views of a large-size TV with Canal Sat and Dish Network in the Living Room.
