If being close to a beach is a must, then a Son Bou villa holiday is the ideal choice! Boasting the longest stretch of sand on the island of over 2 kilometres, this traditional resort ticks all the boxes for a family getaway. A car isn't necessary during your Son Bou villa holiday, as this small resort has a selection of shops, bars and restaurants which all cater for children, and there's even a mini-train which runs through the town. Positioned on the south coast of Menorca, Son Bou is within close proximity of both vibrant Mahón and the old capital of Ciutadella.
