Palma

Situated in the western Mediterrean, Palma is the stunning capital city of Mallorca. Famous for its cathedral, Palma features a diverse range of interesting architecture and historical sites. Medieval streets are lined with traditional townhouses and lead to baroque churches, public squares and vibrant neighbourhoods. The old town sits at the heart of the city, however Palma is also well known for its beautiful coastline. Portixol beach features an array of great dining destinations and Ca'n Pere Antoni offers stunning views of the Cathedral - both are within close proximity to the city centre. Considered to be Mallorca's greatest treasure, this awe inspiring city features a plethora of art galleries, interesting markets and independent boutiques, as well as a vast selection of restaurants and bars offering the best local cuisine.
