

Villa The View

Region: Colombier Bedrooms: 4 Sleeps: 8 Bathrooms: 4

From a particularly high promontory in the hills of Colombier, Villa The View lives up to its name: in addition to having the best vista over the harbor and ships moored off Public, guests at Villa The View can see all the way to the far-off islands of Nevis to the south. Richly appointed with a decor of dark hardwoods and sumptuous chocolate-hued leather, this is one of the island's finest properties,

Chic, refined and elegant sum up the interior decor of this architectural masterpiece. All the rooms have the same Argentinian designer furniture, which is a unique collection of leather and parchment designs in natural hues and of exceptional quality. Stone steps lead down to the villa and the only sound to be heard is a contemporary stone waterfall that trickles gently, giving a soothing ambiance. From here, you are completely mesmerized by the captivating view.

The living area is very spacious. Looking out from this room, it seems that the pool is overflowing into the ocean, giving the impression that the pool stretches to the horizon where the sea meets the sky. The kitchen is a gourmet delight with every convenience imaginable, and it leads directly to the inside dining area which in turn leads to the outside dining area.

Two of the bedrooms are located on this same level and are similar in size. Their ensuite bathrooms are very large and have dual vanities and spacious shower areas; they even have the same incredible view! The third bedroom is situated a few steps down on a level below. On that same level there is also a fitness room. On a lower level, after meandering through the gardens is the fourth master suite, located in a separate cottage. Totally private from the main villa (and the rest of the world), guests can enjoy the heated Jacuzzi located on the bungalow's terrace or a quiet drink from the bar on the dining table. Inside the bungalow there is a sitting area, with plasma TV and music system, an office, dressing room and an enormous bathroom.

This villa boasts an unsurpassed location, luxurious elegance and is the perfect retreat for privacy.
