Villa Vitti

From the very first moment you set foot in Villa Vitti, you know you have discovered a place of truly exceptional levels of aesthetic achievement and quality construction. The vast, white-tile terrace and clear blue infinity pool represent the epitome of clean, modern lines, and looking out at the view reminds you that your location is unsurpassed as well. Villa Vitti is perched on the Lurin hillside looking down over Shell Beach, the turquoise Caribbean sea stretching off to the horizon, where the silhouettes of Statia and Saba are visible on a clear day.

Even on the terrace, the thought and care devoted to the selection of Villa Vitti's furnishings is evident: the lacquer-like finish of a Maiori Studios dining table gleams in the sun, sail-shaped parasols offer shade by the pool, a polished-concrete wet bar with two refrigerators is just a few steps away. The living room and indoor dining area open directly onto the terrace and the view; sliding glass doors and air conditioning can turn the space into a cool retreat from the sun. The living room transforms into a home cinema at the touch of a button, with a surround-sound stereo and a large HDTV that rises out of the floor. On the interior side of the living area is a peaceful and secluded Zen garden, surrounded by bamboo trees and offering a soothing atmosphere, with a gentle fountain and a cooling misting system. Adjacent to the living and dining area you will find the convenient and excellently equipped kitchen.

The first of Villa Vitti's five bedrooms is on the pool level, with a four-poster, Italian-design king bed, hardwood floors, and an extraordinary ensuite bath with a Bossini rain-head shower that illuminates the water droplets in whatever color you choose. Feel like relaxing with a film in your room? The HDTV rises out of a hidden panel in the floor at the foot of the bed. Adjacent to this room is the second bedroom, also with a king bed and ensuite bath as well as a small, private outdoor garden.

To one side of the lower level of Villa Vitti we have two more bedrooms, each thoughtfully furnished and decorated in a clean, contemporary style, one in blue and the other in orange. To the other side, there is second master bedroom with a hidden HDTV, dressing area, and a pebble-stone motif throughout.

Guests of Villa Vitti will enjoy complimentary continental breakfast each morning during High Season. Daily housekeeping service with evening turndown except Sunday and holidays. Guests will also find upon arrival cold Champagne, white wine and soft drinks.
